Snowball Debt Tracker

Let's Kick That Credit Card Debt To The Curb!

Before you can focus on paying down your credit card debt, you need to know exactly what you're working with. Pull up all your credit card accounts and jot a few specifics down:

- Credit card name/last 4 digits
- Amount owed
- Interest rate
- Due date
- Minimum balance

Once you have those specifics, it's time to get real!

Accept the debt for what it is...mourn, freak out, whatever you have to do, then pump yourself up because you. can. do. this. It will be hard, no doubt, but you're about to do something amazing!

The Snowball Debt Tracker in the following pages will walk you through the rest, step by step!

HOW TO DETERMINE YOUR
DEBT PRIORITY
"SNOWBALL" METHOD

STEP

1

Line your debts up from the smallest amount owed to the largest amount owed.

					<input type="checkbox"/>
					<input type="checkbox"/>

2

Plan to pay the minimum amount owed on all credit cards monthly.

STEP

3

Take any money you have leftover in your budget and throw it at your smallest debt. Continue every month until this card is paid off!

STEP

4

Once you pay a card off, take the amount you were paying on it monthly and put it towards your next smallest credit card debt.

STEP

5

Keep snowballing your debt like this until all of your credit card debt is paid off!
